

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

INVALID'S SAD PLIGHT.

After Inflammatory Rheumatism, Hair Came Out, Skin Peeled, and Bed Sores Developed—Only Cuticura Proved Successful.

"About four years ago I had a very severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. My skin peeled, and the high fever played havoc with my hair, which came out in bunches. I also had three large bed sores on my back. I did not gain very rapidly, and my appetite was very poor. I tried many 'cure cures' but they were of little help, and until I tried Cuticura Resolvent I had had no real relief. Then my complexion cleared and soon I felt better. The bed sores went very soon after a few applications of Cuticura Ointment, and when I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment for my hair, it began to grow in its former glossy appearance. Mrs. Lavina J. Henderson, 138 Broad St., Stamford, Conn., March 6 and 12, 1907."

Our leading physician recommends Cuticura for eczema. Mrs. Alg Cockburn, Sulphur, O., June 11, 1907.

TRAPPERS' GOOD SEASON.

Profitable Return From Killing of Fur Bearing Animals in Minnesota.

The season for killing fur bearing animals has ended and it is estimated that during the season the trappers of Minnesota have received considerably more than $1,000,000 for the skins taken. Trappers who have been in the business for years report that there are more of the animals in the State now than ever before, a fact accounted for by the heavy rainfall of the last few years.

The closed season for fur bearing animals opens on November 15 and lasts until April 15, the only animals protected, however, being the muskrat and the mink. The largest increase is in the number of muskrat, although there has also been a large increase in the number of mink. The high water of the last few years has been particularly favorable for the muskrat which migrate from their homes in periods of low water and then their food supply gets short.

For two or three years there has been plenty of rain and all the streams lakes and pools have been kept full, affording the muskrat suitable homes, and as they multiply rapidly the supply has increased greatly in spite of the activity of the trappers during the open season.

Reports received by Carlos Ayer, executive agent of the State Game and Fish Commission, from all parts of the State indicate that the same condition exists throughout the State. At the muskrat skins bring from 10 to 25 cents each, and the mink skins 25 and 50 each, the income of the trappers has been very large. Many cases are reported in which farmer boys have taken enough skins from the home farm to net them several hundred dollars.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

POPULAR SCIENCE & INVENTION

To see an object on the earth's surface 100 miles away the observer must be 6667 feet above the level of the sea.

On the French northern railway many carriages are lighted by acetylene, and the results of using this method of illumination are said to be satisfactory.

German scientists, after devoting deep study to the question of the decay of paper, have found that bacteria are the chief enemies to be met with in the preservation of valuable books and manuscripts.

Patients suffering from tobacco poisoning often notice that they have difficulty in distinguishing between gold and silver coins. Another common statement is that they see better in the dusk of the evening than in the bright light or sunshine.

A Boston physician is authority for the statement that an invariable indication of a child's age is the condition of the bones of the wrist, as shown by an X-ray examination. He is now examining school children in blocks of 500 by his new system.

According to the London Lancet, the modern tendency to exclude fat from the human diet is an injurious one. Many minor ills of the body would be avoided if only care were taken to include a sufficiency of fat in the diet. The Lancet recommends the old fashioned suet pudding, especially in the feeding of young and growing individuals.

The late Prof. Angelo Hellprin, in addition to his well known scientific ability, was a great landscape painter. He has left seven paintings of various features of the eruption of Mont Pele, that destroyed St. Pierre, which possesses at the same time high value as works of art and as scientific representations of nature. It is rare for a man of science to be a true artist, and when this combination of abilities exists, art is able not only to give pleasure, but to convey and record scientific knowledge.

Lieutenant Camden of the revenue service reports from Alaska that McCulloch Peak on Bogoslov Island, which rose from the sea in 1796, has now, as a result of volcanic disturbances, entirely disappeared. Following the explosion which destroyed the peak have come remarkable changes in the profile of Mount Makush and the neighboring mountains, in consequence of the deposition upon them of a vast quantity of lava dust, which has rendered them almost unrecognizable. This material, to a depth of hundreds of feet, has been strewn over the whole island.

Pennsylvania's Grasshopper Year.

"The Grasshopper Level" on the Pennsylvania railroad is within four miles of Lancaster, and derived its name from this circumstance: The grasshoppers one season were so numerous as to destroy the crops, and it is said the fence rails were worn smooth by the insects crossing from one side to the other in searching for green pastures.

During that season the pests were so thick on the rails in the vicinity mentioned that the engines with their trains were stalled, so that to make any progress it became necessary to have men precede the trains and pour sand on the tracks. This suggested carrying the sand in boxes, and next putting the boxes astride of the locomotive, and then adding rods which were placed under the control of engineers and firemen.—Philadelphia Record.

Horseflesh Consumption in France.

The increase in consumption of meats in 1907, notwithstanding the higher prices, is accounted for by the large increase in the consumption of horseflesh in 1907, although accompanied by some decrease in the use of other butchers' meats. This large and increasing consumption of horseflesh would appear to be attributable not alone to its comparatively low price, about one-third of that of other butchers' meats, but also and chiefly to the circumstance that repugnance to its use as a food article has been largely overcome and is rapidly disappearing. It is referred to in the local press as the triumph of the horse.—Consular Reports.

Not Embarrassed. "Have your clients with the courts embarrassed you?" "Not at all," answered Mr. Dustin Stax. "Every time I am sued and do not pay I find that I have added just that much to my earnings."—Washington Star.

More Marriages in England. Many interesting details as to the marriages which took place in England and Wales during 1906 are given in the registrar general's detailed report for that year. There were more of them than in the previous year, but the increase was not conspicuous in the case of widowers, while there was no increase at all in that of widows. As already recorded, the birth rate was abnormally low, while the death rate was higher for the year. The marriage rate shows an increase of 0.3 over 1905, but was 0.2 below the average for the ten years 1896-1905. The birth rate was the lowest ever recorded, being 0.1 less than in 1905 and 1.6 lower than the decennial average.—London Chronicle.

THE AMBITIONS OF YOUTH.

"Johnny, why don't you be a good boy like your brother Willy?" the mother was sternly admonishing her naughty son. "Willy here may be president some day, while you will have to dig in the sewer."

"But, mother," wailed Willy, "can't I dig in the sewer sometimes too?"—Harper's Weekly.

WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the loins, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention.

In such cases the one sure remedy which speedily removes the cause, and restores the feminine organism to a healthy, normal condition is LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

Mrs. Will Young, of 6 Columbia Ave., Rockland, Me., says:

"I was troubled for a long time with dreadful backaches and a pain in my side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to try it; after taking three bottles I can truly say that I never felt so well in my life."

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had very severe backaches, and pressing-down pains. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

"For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.
